

"Consider how the salvation of God, and the glory of the Lord, is preached not in Jerusalem, but in the solitude of the Church, in the wilderness to multitudes... John Baptist is the first to preach the Kingdom of Heaven, that the forerunner of the Lord may have this honorable privilege. His raiment of camel's hair, not of wool - the one the mark of austerity in dress, the other of a delicate luxury. Food moreover suited to a dweller in the desert, no choice viands, but such as satisfied the necessities of the body. His girdle of skin, which Elias also bare, is the mark of mortification."
