

"You are commanded to love God with all thy heart, that your whole thoughts — with all thy soul," that your whole life — with all thy mind, that your whole understanding — may be given to Him from whom you have that you give. Thus He has left no part of our life which may justly be unfilled of Him, or give place to the desire after any other final good.

The gospel today "commands us to love." I intentionally chose "love songs" for the liturgy for this 30th Sunday in

MUSIC

Ordinary Time: "Love Divine.....They'll know we are Christians by our love.....Rejoice, the Lord is King!" I am reminded of a book I use for motivational speaking that inspires me to love unconditionally especially during these trying times of the Coronavirus and politics: The Three Questions by Leo Tolstoy. What are the three questions?

1. When is the best time to do things? 2. Who is the most important one? 3. What is the right thing to do?

Spiritual food for thought my brothers and sisters. You are welcome to borrow my copy to discover the answers!

Love and Light! Michael

Lending a Hand: Grocery Drop-off for Seniors

Hi! My name is Chloe Zeng and I am a Senior at The Madeira School on McLean, VA. In collaboration with Sisters Maxine and Theresine, I am starting a grocery pick-up for our congregation. My desire to help all started when I was able to volunteer at a senior living center last year. I planned on volunteering at one of our local centers this summer; but due to Covid-19, I had to put that plan on pause. I realize that although I cannot continue as I had originally planned, I can help the senior community in a different way. Due to the many challenges and dangers that come with grocery shopping in today's climate, I would love to help pick up groceries for free for any seniors in our congregation that need a helping hand. If you are interested and would like more information, please contact me in whatever way you feel most comfortable.
