

"The end of the life of Mary having now arrived, there was heard, as St. Jerome relates, in the apartment where she lay, a great harmony; and also, as it was revealed to St. Bridget, a great brightness was seen. By this harmony and unusual splendor the holy Apostles perceived that Mary was then departing, at which they broke forth again in tears and prayers, and raising their hands, with one voice exclaimed: 'Oh, our mother, now thou art going to heaven, and art leaving us, give us thy last benediction, and do not forget us in our misery.'"

MUSIC

The summer is swiftly moving by and I hope you are enjoying and being blessed by music during the mass. Take a moment to read what Bishop Brewer has to say about music liturgy at cfdiocese.org:

*Music teaches us the gospel.

*Music connects us to God in unique ways.

*Music expresses our love to God with our whole being.

*Music as worship fulfills God's command.

Please mark your social calendars!
