

"To save, therefore, the multitudes from the intense seditions, which were excited for the sake of religion, He adds, but unless you repent, and unless you cease to conspire against your rulers, for which you have no divine guidance, you shall all likewise perish, and your blood shall be united to that of your sacrifices."

MUSIC

Themes found in the Readings: Christ as the new Moses/ God's mercy and love

Response: "The Lord is kind and merciful." Psalm 103

I am very proud of the choir and the new anthem they will present today during communion. You will hear it again during Lent and the Easter season and you will recognize this beautiful arrangement of the 23rd Psalm by Marty Haugen. Thank you, Dr. Cabral, for sharing your gifts with us as well.

May the metaphor of the Burning Bush offer us insight into our Lenten journey.

Let our prayer be that as God dwells in us and shows life through us, we will "burn with the brightness of the Lord." We all have "gifts" and may we use them to draw people toward the "light" of God's love and healing!

Think about the Acclamation today: "Repent, says the Lord; the kingdom of heaven is a hand."

See you at noon on Monday at our Senior Luncheon. Our speaker will be Angela Faircloth from the Sampson County Department of Aging. God Bless! Michael
